- Cluster Committee: Sandy – Submitted 98% of what we need for draft premium, are now waiting for review and corrections. The entire 4 days of the cluster will be in honor of Robbie Hiltz. Suggestion from Gloria of something special for Jrs in honor of Robbie since she was a huge advocate of Jrs. Lisa suggests of a scholarship. Anything going into the premium needs to be in, in two weeks. Into the catalog needs to be in, in a month. Gloria suggests a larger rosette to Best Jr, Laurie suggests to have it presented right before BIS. Nancy moves for a motion to have ACMKC purchase a large rosette “appropriately sized ribbon to make eyes twirl” and $25 gift card and hand Best Jr Friday
- Obedience Trial: Barb Stoffel - Judges entered, Nancy assisted. Panel has been approved. Issue last year with graduate obedience, has same exercises as utility not open, it has been corrected. Dates September 23 & 24. All same classes as previous years. Pam agreed to be chief ring steward.
- Agility Trial: Laurie Hanson – Looking to have the trial this year. Held week 49, the weekend before Granite City Show. Saturday and Sunday show. Some clubs have been having three day shows, we are going with a two day show our first year. It will be hosted at Fusion in Minnetonka. Mike is doing a lot to help our club out. Next step to vote – Kathy B agreed to be hospitality – Club members have preference to getting entered into the trial before the drawing. We will need permission from Minnetonka kennel club to use Fusion. Karen moves a motion to go ahead with agility trial this year, Kathy seconded, Passed to host Agility Trial 2017.
- Communications/Publicity: Kare11 Backyard, still working on getting a hold of someone for the Pure Bred Day.

- Educational Programs: Looking into having someone come in to talk about the details of Dock Diving
- Website: Behind on corrected minutes, they will be updated soon. Wondering if we should have anything for Robbie for all to see, not just members. A memory page would be a from a blurb on the main page. Also post that the whole Cluster is in honor of Robbie. All this, once Tim approves.
